TUESDAYS, JUNE 10 (PART 1) & JUNE 17 (PART 2)

7 PM

GRISWOLD CENTER, 777 HIGH STREET

Originally screened for one night only in theaters nationwide, this 1970 documentary follows the life of Martin Luther King, Jr. from the beginnings of the Civil Rights movement in Montgomery, Alabama, to his 1968 assassination in Memphis. Interspersed with news reels of actual events are readings by celebrities like Paul Newman and James Earl Jones. The film does contain violent and disturbing scenes and language. Learn more about the life of Dr. King at Ohio Chautauqua in Worthington, July 8-12, when his will be one of the featured journey stories.

SATURDAY, JUNE 28

OLD WORTHINGTON LIBRARY MEETING ROOM

Born in Amsterdam in 1937, John Koenigsberg survived the Holocaust and now speaks extensively about his experiences - which involved leaving his parents to hide with a non-Jewish family - to ensure that its horrors are never forgotten.
