Spaghetti Dinner Serves Many Mouthfuls of Meatballs

More than 1,200 meatballs — with sauce, spaghetti, breadsticks, salad and dessert, of course — were consumed by 298 people at the Annual Spaghetti Dinner held recently at Colonial Hills Elementary.

Volunteer chefs included Dale Rhine and Engine House No. 5's Kevin Jones. Thanks to all who contributed to the success of the evening: Jubilee Foods, Engine House No. 5, Maple Lee, Villa Nova, Carfagna's, and the many student and adult volunteers who donated their time and elbow grease.

The dinner raised more than $650 for the Colonial Hills PTA — without the PTA having raised the price of the meals.

Egg Hunt On For March 22 — BYOB

The annual Egg Hunt will be held Saturday, March 22 at 10 a.m. at Selby Park. As in past years, there will be separate hunting areas for various age groups; 0-2, 3-4; 5-6; 7-8; 9-12. Once again, there will be this year a 13-99 age group hunt. Bring your own baskets.

The Egg Hunt, and all other CHCA-sponsored events throughout the year, is supported by membership dues. If you've missed the chance to sign up for this year, we are publishing a form (one more time) that you may use to join (see below).

A rain date of March 29 has been set. Coffee and donuts will be available for a small donation. Happy hunting!

WERE YOU MISSED IN THE 1996-97 MEMBERSHIP DRIVE?
