

Colonial Hills Courier

September 2020 - A PUBLICATION OF THE COLONIAL HILLS CIVIC ASSOCIATION (CHCA)

Hello neighbors!

Another summer in Colonial Hills has come and gone now. I know it was different from any summer we have had before, but I hope you were still able to get out and enjoy the neighborhood. It looks like the rest of this year's events will also look different but we still have some fun things planned for you.

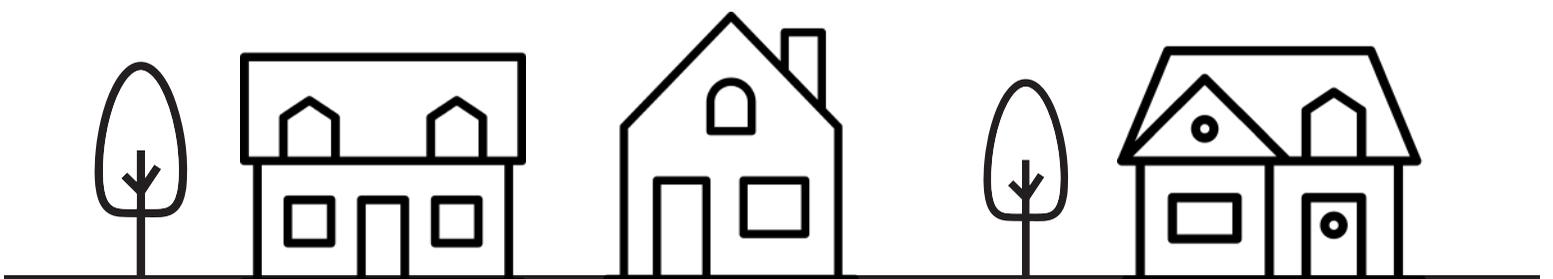

I would like to take a moment to thank Dave Nadolny who has served as part of the CHCA for many years, most recently as our treasurer. Dave has decided to step away from his treasurer position at this time. We are grateful for him, his wife, and 2 children who have volunteered at many, if not all, of our events over the last several years. He is always looking out for others and connecting people to each other and the resources they need. If you see Dave out and about please be sure to thank him for his service!

You should have received information at your doorstep regarding this year's membership drive. Again, membership dues cover the cost of some of our events and pay to print the Courier. Thank you to those who have already paid! Remember, there are 2 ways to pay. You can send in a check along with the membership form to our PO box or you can pay online from our website, www.colonialhills.us.

See you around!

FAMILY MENTOR FOUNDATION

The CHCA had originally planned a neighborhood "packing" event with the Family Mentor Foundation to pack Buddy Boxes to help hungry kids in our community. (Buddy Boxes are weekend food boxes provided to kids in Franklin County who lack food over the weekends both during the school year and summer.) Unfortunately, we could not go as a big group. Several neighbors signed up to volunteer in small groups and had fun serving our community. Together we packed almost 1,000 Buddy Boxes!

THE FAMILY MENTOR
FOUNDATION IS ALWAYS LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS TO HELP
PACK BUDDY BOXES.

Please visit their website to learn more about this wonderful organization and to sign up to help throughout the year.

4TH OF JULY

We have a lot of people to thank for pulling off our “socially distant” 4th of July celebration this year.

THANK YOU to The CyMack Group, Keller Williams Capital Partners for providing flags to each house and for sponsoring the “Amazing Giants,” who toured the neighborhood.

THANK YOU to our neighbors AJ Perry and Alan Miroslaw for organizing, promoting, and running the events.

THANK YOU to our neighbor Will Pearce for putting together the neighborhood scavenger hunt.

THANK YOU to our neighbor Kenny for setting up the Meat Wagon in front of his house so we could enjoy a delicious lunch.

THANK YOU to our secret House Decorating Contest judges for choosing the winners for our first 4th of July contest.

THANK YOU to our neighbor Ron Sears for graciously donating the bike and runner reflective (safety) materials that we passed out with the goody bags.

TREASURER INTRO — JOSH HALL

I'm Josh Hall and I'd like to introduce myself as the new Treasurer of the Colonial Hills Civic Association. While I grew up in the Marysville area, my wife Leslie and I recently celebrated 10 years on Kenbrook Drive. We arrived in 2010 with a three month old and no idea what an amazing neighborhood we'd found. We've since grown to a family of seven and all five of our kids will be attending CHES this fall (at least virtually). As our family grew we wanted to continue to make Colonial Hills home, and like so many others in recent years, we built on rather than leave this great community. We hope you've come and enjoyed our annual July 3rd block party or if you've been by our house you've probably seen the never ending string of projects we have going on.

I'm a Buckeye and graduated from OSU longer ago than I like to admit. I currently work as an Asset Manager for National Church Residences, whom I've been with for 15 years. I think my experience in the non-profit world will be a great asset to the Civic Association. Given all the wonderful events and services CHCA has provided through the years I'm excited to join our team of officers, trustees, and volunteers that make this such a wonderful community.

CHILDREN'S HOLIDAY PARTY: OPEN POSITION

Interested in volunteering with the CHCA? Like to plan events? We are looking for someone to plan and run our annual children's holiday party. This year the party is scheduled for Sunday, December 13th from 3:00-5:00 pm. Of course, this year will probably be different, but we usually have a visit from Santa, cookie decorating, games, and crafts. If this sounds like something you might be interested in, send us a message on our Facebook page or email me at Lindholmfamily653@gmail.com.

Can you believe that the Little Free Library at Selby Park is almost six years old? Since 2014, the library has been replaced with a weather-resistant box, the former library has been repurposed as a Blessings Box during the pandemic, and Colonial Hills has welcomed a lot of new neighbors. The LFL remains as popular as ever so please check it out, supply it with interesting reads, and do your part to keep it successful. Bonus: the information below can be folded and trimmed as a bookmark if you happen to need one!

LITTLE FREE LIBRARY.ORG®
TAKE A BOOK • RETURN A BOOK

How Does This Library Work?

Little Free Libraries are free book exchanges where anyone may take a book or return a book to share with others. No rules, no late fees, and everyone is welcome to take part! Little Free Libraries aren't just about books, they are about connecting with your neighbors and community; they're "mini-town squares" where people can meet over a good book and get to know each other.

It belongs to everybody - neighbors, friends, and people we don't even know yet. Anyone can use it. That's why it's important to take care of it.

TAKE A BOOK

If you see something you would like to read, take it. Look inside and see who gave it; who else has read it.

SHARE IT

Return it to any Little Free Library or pass it on to a friend. We support reading for children, literacy for adults, and libraries around the world.

RETURN A BOOK

Do your part and keep Little Libraries stock with high-quality books - share your favorite titles. Be a friend of libraries big and small. Pay it forward!

What Goes in the Little Free Library?

This Little Free Library offers a way to share good things to read - favorite books from your childhood or books you would recommend to friends and neighbors; books that teach, intrigue, and engage you. All of us can help by keeping this collection stocked with good reading material.

Share books that you've loved with others, and check back often for things that others have enjoyed.

THE LIBRARY IS NOT A PLACE FOR:

- magazines and periodicals
- academic journals or literary criticisms
- textbooks, case law, or course packets
- used activity books
- damaged or stained books
- dictionaries and reference manuals
- videos, CDs, and DVDs
- encyclopedias
- lost and found items
- sizeable collections or 'down-sizing' donations

Thank you for looking after our library and making it successful!

NEW KID ON THE BLOCK

Notice a new kid posting on the Colonial Hills Facebook page? The CHCA has created a Facebook Page in an attempt to limit confusion of what is “official” and what is not. We will be posting upcoming events and pertinent news for our neighbors to stay in the know on the Colonial Hills Civic Association. We would love for you to “Like” or “Share” posts that are shared and choose to “Follow” the CHCA Page (not because we are conceited but this is the way that more of your neighbors can know what is going on).

You can see below that where to click when you search for “Colonial Hills Civic Association” to Like and if you click the “...”, you can Share and update your “Follow Settings”. You can also tag the CHCA page by using @colonialhillscivicasociation.
